COPPER COINS AND TOKENS.

No duplicates, except when mentioned.

- 30 63 1720 "Lugdun. XV. Dec. Gratia": head Louis XV.: rev., "Franciæ et Navarræ excuss."; weakly struck, otherwise very good
- 1.75 64 1755 Louis XV.: older portrait: a galley with the "Fleece" as a banner: COL. FRANC. DE L'AM.; fine
- 27.00 65 1796 COPPER COMPANY OF UPPER CANADA: ONE HALFPENNY: obv., Hope presents two infants to Freedom: BRITISH SETTLEMENT KENTUCKY: bronze proof. This piece is mentioned in Mr. Sandham's work as being the piece to be wished for, as it seldom is offered for sale even at the figure he quotes ($40): it possesses one advantage over the ordinary Colonial coin, in connecting one of the United States with a Colony which was and still is British
- 12 66 Rude tokens copied from the English, Irish and Vermont Halfpence: latter VERMO: one, 1771, is a "curio" indeed: about as good as usually found (2 pierced); 10 pcs
- 2.00 67 1810 Windmill: rev., a pig standing beside a store, jug, &c., in window: NO CREDIT in ex.: very rude: apparently the work of an embryo artist; fair
